

The Astor Library,

New York, Nov 4 1886

Dear Sir,

Dr. B. J. Loring, who was here to day, mentioned that he had been favored with the medal of the U. S. Great Seal, (of 1882), and he added, that if we addressed you on the subject, you would, doubtless, kindly favor the library with one. We write to say, that it would be a very acceptable addition to our Collection.

Very Respectfully Yours

[Abstract:] Asks favor of Medal of the U.S. Great Seal for Astor Library.

The Astor Library,
New York,
November 4, 1886

Dear Sir,

Dr. B.D. Lessing, who was here to day, mentioned that he had been favored with the medal of the U.S. Great Seal, (of 1882), and he added, that if we addressed you for the subject, you would doubtless kindly favor the Library with one. We write to say, that it would be a very acceptable addition to our Collection.

Very Respect. Yours,
F. Saunders
Libr.
